REPORTS:

Superintendent Report

Superintendent Edmundson reported that both Mr. Wiginton and Mr. Hopson went to a career fair at Fort Hays so she gave a few updates on their behalf. The new suburban is here but must have a DOT inspection before it can be used to haul students. The district is looking into getting more gravel behind the school where the buses pick up students. The district will be getting a plug in for PowerSchool that will allow for more customization on reports generated from PowerSchool. The Executive Director at NKESC (Dan Thornton) is retiring. INA Alert was here last week to quote PA systems for the football field and McDonald gym. There are 7 high school students participating in powerlifting. Superintendent Edmundson gave updates on some legislation including open enrollment, budget, alternative routes to teacher licensure, cell phone in schools, capital outlay and KSHSAA eligibility.

DISCUSSION/ACTION ITEMS:

Members of the senior class were present to discuss their senior trip proposal. A more detailed itinerary will be presented at the next meeting.

Clerk Walden reviewed the commendations and findings from the Food Service Administrative Review that took place in January.

President Sowers reviewed the board self evaluations that were done by previous board members in December. The board will complete the self evaluation again in the fall along with setting board goals.
